OPPORTUNITY

This is a property well-suited for patient capital – allowing buyers to secure urban residential land at today’s pricing while future servicing, approvals, and market conditions unlock higher land values over time.

Set on nearly 5 acres along Dewdney Trunk Road in Mission, this property represents a compelling long-term holding and future development opportunity in an area designated Urban Residential. Unlike many properties currently trading at full development pricing, this site offers buyers the opportunity to acquire urban residential land at a more realistic per-acre value today, while benefiting from meaningful upside as the surrounding area continues to evolve.

With its Urban Residential designation, the property offers the potential to be subdivided into smaller residential lots and may ultimately support small-lot single-family homes, duplexes, or multi-plex housing forms, subject to municipal approvals. The site’s gently sloping topography and frontage along a major corridor further support its long-term planning potential.

HIGHLIGHTS

Prime Mission location on a prominent corner

Potential for 6–8 lots/acre

Easy access to West Coast Express + major routes

Lot area of 4.57 Acres

PROPERTY OVERVIEW

SITE POTENTIAL

This property presents a strong opportunity for future subdivision and residential redevelopment within Mission's urban growth area. Roughly 3.4 Acres estimated to be usable after PNA loss.

4.57 Acres

20-27 Lot Yield Potential

The land's scale and designation support the creation of multiple residential lots and allow for flexibility in housing form, from traditional detached homes to higher-density residential options, subject to City approvals. As servicing and development activity continues in the area, the site is well positioned to benefit from long-term value uplift.

LOCATION

Situated along Dewdney Trunk Road, this property is positioned within one of Mission's established and evolving residential areas. The location offers a balance of convenient day-to-day access and long-term growth appeal, with schools, shopping, parks, and essential services all within close proximity.

Dewdney Trunk Road serves as a key east-west connector, providing efficient access through Mission and linking to broader Fraser Valley routes. The surrounding area is characterized by existing neighbourhoods, expanding residential communities, and continued infrastructure investment, supporting ongoing demand for housing. Residents benefit from nearby green spaces and outdoor recreation, while still being a short drive from Mission's town centre and transit options. This combination of accessibility, established amenities, and future growth makes the location well suited for long-term residential development and investment.
