777 Main Street is the third tallest building in Fort Worth and stands within walking distance of the Fort Worth Convention Center, Sundance Square, and an amazing array of retail, restaurants and exciting events.

Block bounded by Main Street, East 7th Street, Commerce Street, and Northeast 6th Street, this location is just minutes from Tom Landry Freeway (I-30), and North/South Freeway (I-35). The Fort Worth train station is only four blocks away with service for the TRE, Heartland Flyer and Texas Eagle.

This building also offers the Petroleum Club on the top floor, on-site security, a deli, a restaurant on the main floor, and shoe shine services.
