OPPORTUNITY

Functional Flex Space with Corporate Presence

9110 196A Street offers the opportunity to occupy a freestanding office and warehouse facility in Langley's established Port Kells industrial area. The property provides a highly functional configuration with a balance of warehouse and office space, allowing occupiers to support operational requirements while maintaining a professional corporate presence.

Well suited for a range of industrial and service commercial users, the building offers the flexibility, efficiency, and accessibility required by today's businesses in one of Metro Vancouver's most supply constrained industrial markets

LOCATION

Positioned within the Port Kells industrial area, the property benefits from direct access to Highway 1, Golden Ears Bridge and convenient connections to key transportation corridors throughout Metro Vancouver and the Fraser Valley. Its central location supports efficient movement of goods, services, and personnel, while providing excellent connectivity to major population centres, regional trade routes, and the Canada-U.S. border. Port Kells remains one of the region's most established industrial nodes, attracting a diverse mix of manufacturing, warehousing, logistics, and service-oriented businesses.
