LOCATION MAP

Located on the iconic Water Street, this property enjoys excellent visibility in the town's main commercial and tourism corridor. St. Andrews is well-known for its waterfront views, historic architecture, boutique shops, and lively hospitality scene.

The property's strategic location attracts significant tourist traffic during the peak season while also appealing to visitors year-round. This year-round interest is fueled by local events, business travel, and regional tourism.

THE ALLURE OF THE MARITIME EXPERIENCE

New Brunswick offers a rare combination of accessibility and escapism. Unlike over-saturated tourist markets, New Brunswick's resort towns like St. Andrews-by-the-Sea retain an authentic, unhurried charm.

- As an owner, you're not simply offering a room, you're curating an experience: mornings filled with salt air, days shaped by fresh, locally sourced seafood, and afternoons spent wandering vibrant shops, boutiques, and lively sidewalks.
- The resort town of Saint Andrews is a true destination, drawing a loyal following of repeat visitors from across New England, Quebec, and Ontario... guests who return year after year for its rare blend of coastal charm and rich Loyalist heritage.
- The community offers a surprisingly diverse number of attractions for its size: world renowned golf course, aquarium, botanical garden, whale watching, art galleries & museums including the historically significant Ministers Island (accessible only by a tidal causeway).
- St. Andrews by-the-sea's tourism program offers numerous festivals and events that bring visitors from near & far throughout the year. The list includes:
 - Paddlefest Music Festival (May Long Weekend): Live music, workshops, and outdoor activities.
 - Fundy Pirate Fest (July): Features parades, boat races, and performances.
 - Canada Day & NB Day Celebrations: Community events and celebrations.
 - Artist-by-the-Sea: Art-focused events.
 - Indulge Food & Wine Festival (October): A premier food festival featuring local cuisine.
 - Sparkle By-The-Sea (December): Holiday-themed events and community festivities.
 - Winter Warmer / Socials: Mid-winter music festival.

STRATEGIC MARKET ADVANTAGE

Investing in New Brunswick real estate offers a strategic entry point that many other coastal regions can no longer provide.

- Compared to coastal properties in Maine, Nova Scotia or British Columbia, New Brunswick offers exceptional value. You can acquire historic, architecturally significant properties at a lower cost than other resort markets.
- While summer is the crown jewel, the rise of “slow travel” and winter wellness tourism (think nordic spa and cozy fireplace retreats) is extending the traditional shoulder seasons, providing a more robust year-round demand.
