13,500 sq.ft. office space available for sublease

5562 Sackville Street is located in the vibrant core of Downtown Halifax. The building is walking distance from major financial institutions, parkades, Metro Transit stops, hotels, dining establishments, fitness facilities, and other essential amenities. The high-visibility area offers connectivity and convenience for tenants. With the city's public gardens and Citadel Hill next door, the building offers an ideal spot for a quick retreat to nature.

The location is currently configured as a telecommunications space. Located on the second floor, the office comes fully furnished and is a turnkey opportunity. The build-out comes with a private security system with restricted access in the building, utilizing a key fob system to ensure exclusive entry for the tenant. The layout features multiple private offices, a spacious conference room, secure data rooms, smaller meeting rooms, a well-appointed kitchen, and washroom facilities. The space is ready to support a dynamic and professional work environment.
