Highlights

An exceptional opportunity to establish your business in the heart of Westboro, Ottawa's fastest-evolving innovation and lifestyle district. This modern office building offers abundant natural light and a thoughtfully appointed lobby that conveys a polished, professional ambiance. A charming bakery and fitness centre adjoins the lobby, adding convenience and functionality to the everyday workplace experience. With a growing mix of creative firms and tech tenants, this locale fosters collaboration, brand visibility, and long-term asset value—making it a strategic hub for forward-thinking organizations.

Location Overview

At 411 Roosevelt Avenue, you gain premium accessibility to major transit arteries and emerging residential communities, boosting employee convenience and talent attraction. Proximity to vibrant retail, dining, and a wide range of services enhances workspace appeal and supports client facing operations.

Tenants benefit from both indoor and outdoor parking, with immediate access to Highway 417, the Kichi Zibi Parkway, and key arterial routes—ensuring efficient travel across the city. Westboro Station is within walking distance and will provide enhanced connectivity upon completion of the light rail extension in 2027. A bus stop positioned directly at the building's entrance further streamlines access to public transit, delivering seamless mobility for staff and visitors alike.

AREA MAP

Tenants in Westboro gain a measurable edge by being part of the Westboro BIA. Through coordinated marketing initiatives, businesses benefit from amplified visibility that extends well beyond their storefronts, positioning them within one of Ottawa's most dynamic commercial corridors. Regular networking events create meaningful connections among local entrepreneurs, property owners, and community stakeholders—fueling collaboration and referrals.

Access to market research and area insights further equips tenants with the data needed to refine strategy, understand consumer trends, and make informed growth decisions. In a neighbourhood that thrives on momentum, Westboro Village BIA ensures businesses are not operating alone, but as part of a well-promoted and strategically supported collective.

Prime Demographics Driving Long-Term Demand

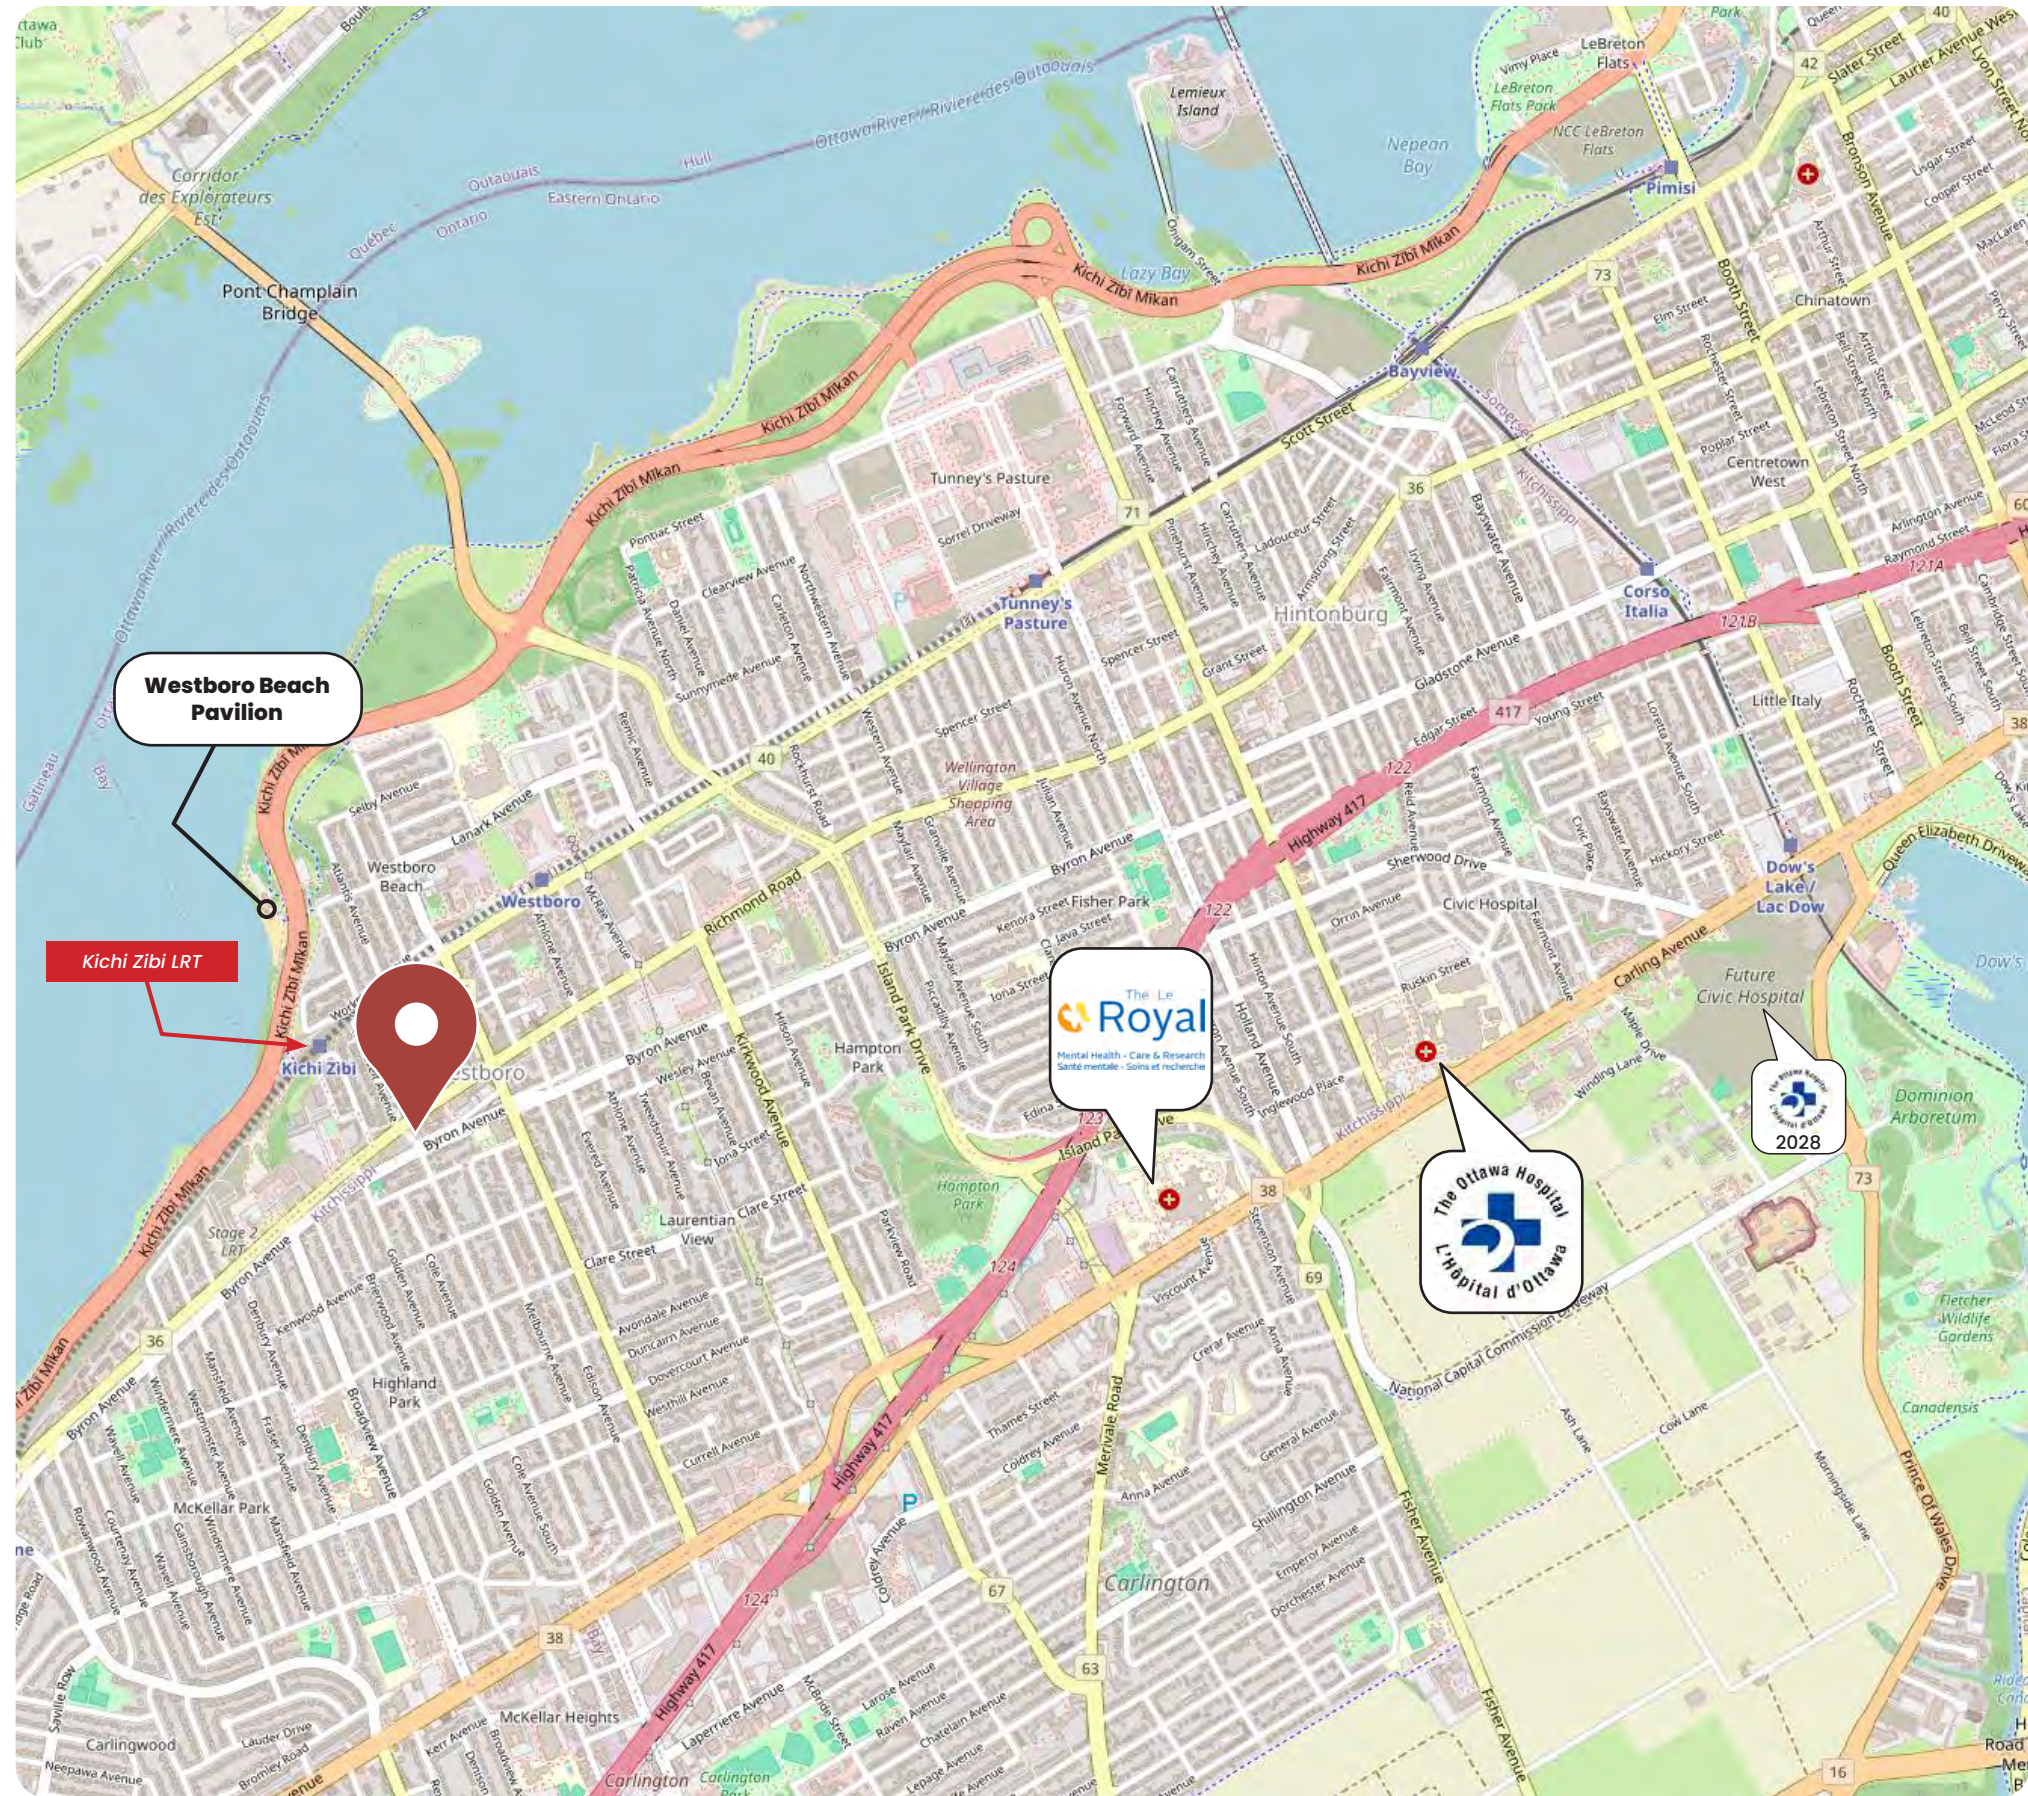

Located within one of Ottawa's most affluent and health-conscious neighbourhoods, 411 Roosevelt Avenue benefits from a dense residential population, and a strong daytime presence generated by nearby offices and retail. The surrounding demographic profile supports sustained demand for family medicine, physiotherapy, counselling, massage therapy, and other specialty wellness and healthcare services.

Connected for Success

The property offers efficient access to Highway 417 via Carling Avenue, is well served by OC Transpo routes, and benefits from nearby LRT connectivity. Excellent cycling infrastructure and walkability further support easy commuting for staff and convenient access for clients across Ottawa.

Convenience at Your Doorstep

Surrounded by Richmond Road's vibrant mix of cafés, restaurants, pharmacies, fitness studios, and boutique retail, 411 Roosevelt Avenue offers everyday amenities within steps of the building. The dynamic Westboro setting enhances both staff experience and client convenience, supporting a seamless workday environment.
