NEBO SHOPPING CENTRE | HAMILTON, ON

PROJECT DESCRIPTION

Upon completion, Nebo Shopping Centre will be a 150,000 sq. ft. shopping centre development located on Hamilton Mountain. Hamilton continues to see a rapid pace of growth given its location along the golden horseshoe and boasts a population over 785,000 people making it Canada's 9th largest metro area.

The city is home to McMaster University with an enrollment of 28,000 students, Mohawk College with an enrollment of 12,000 students and a Brock University campus with an enrollment of 7,000 students. With a thriving education and medical economy, Hamilton is focused on diversifying itself into research and innovation-based industries. Healthcare is now the city's biggest employer, providing some 20,000 jobs, while education is its fastest-growing sector. There are multiple residential and non-residential infrastructure projects under development, with new residential construction consistently increasing on a YoY basis. With a 5% population growth rate and a net migration into the metro of 12,000 people, Hamilton's population growth is the third fastest in the province.
