Location.

A neighborhood defined by industry, medicine & growth.

East Columbia + Strand is rooted in a neighborhood shaped by industry, medicine, and history. Anchored by Royal Columbian Hospital—one of B.C.'s largest and oldest medical institutions—Sapperton draws a steady flow of professionals, patients, and visitors each day, reinforcing its role as a major hub in the region.

With just a 5-minute walk to the SkyTrain, commuters can reach downtown Vancouver in 35 minutes or take Highway 1 to access the rest of the Greater Vancouver Area.

The Brewery District, developed on the former Labatt Brewery site, has evolved into a lively urban center, blending office space, retail, and residential living. The Brewery District is home to the TransLink and Transit Police head office, Fraser Health and the Health Sciences Association head office, as well as over 850 residential units creating a high volume of employees and residents.
