Location Overview

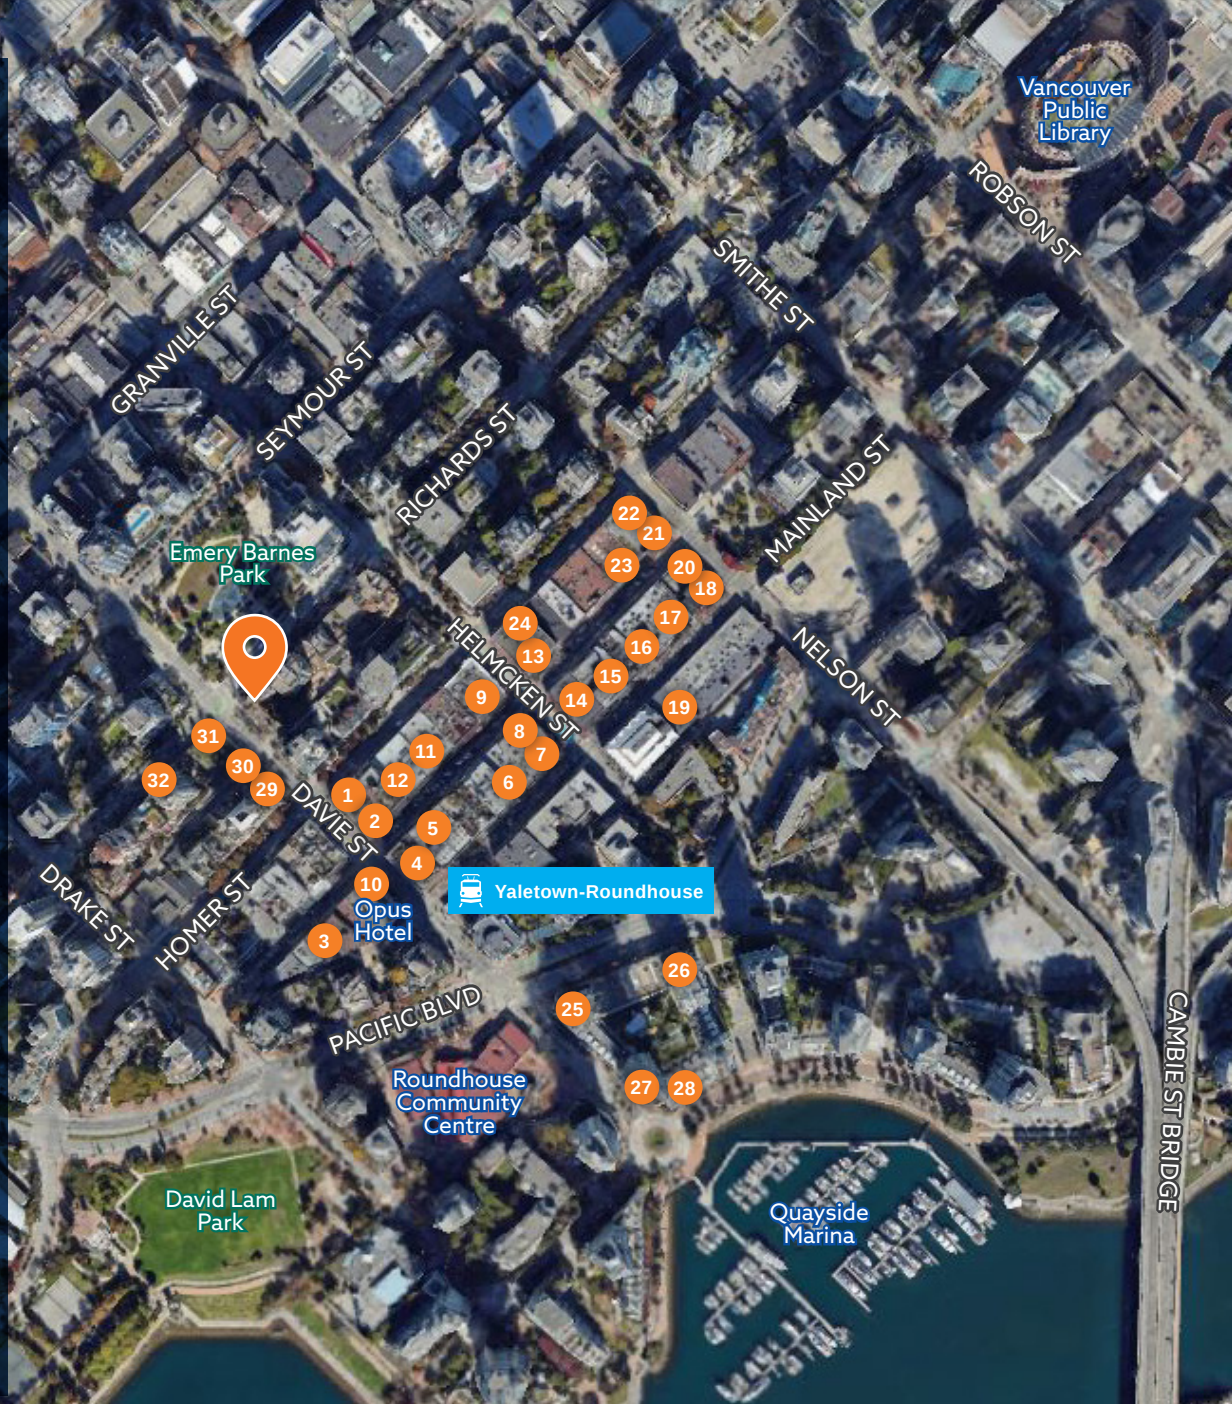

Located on the southern edge of the downtown Vancouver peninsula, Yaletown is one of the city's most sought after neighbourhoods. The neighbourhood has come a long way from its roots as an industrial warehouse district and has transformed into a densely populated trendy neighbourhood home to an abundance of restaurants, lounges, cafes, unique retailers, offices, parks, and the False Creek seawall. The property is ideally located on Davie Street, which has high pedestrian traffic year round and is steps to the many restaurants and retailers in the neighbourhood. Several hotels are also located in the neighbourhood, including the Opus Hotel, JW Marriot, and The Douglas, as well as BC Place and Rogers Arena - Vancouver's sports and entertainment arenas.
