Office opportunities in rejuvenated mixed-use Connect Tower

Nestled in the vibrant, newly appointed Entertainment District along Rice Howard Way in downtown Edmonton, Connect Tower (formerly Phipps McKinnon) has undergone a transformation that redefines urban living and working. This iconic building is now set for a new era of mixed-use development under the developer, Josan Properties.

After transitioning into a mixed-use development, featuring premium living spaces, the development boasts an impressive amenity floor designed to cater to the diverse needs of its occupants. From state-of-the-art fitness facilities to communal gathering spaces, every detail has been carefully curated to enhance the tenant experience.

-  Incredible staff work perks with the addition of new on-site recreation amenities
-  Access to private meeting rooms
-  Bookable event venue areas for hosting
-  NEW AND IMPROVED common areas and washroom design on office floors
-  Join Bianco and Lui Chi's, as our anchor retail tenants

Nine floors of office space

Floors 11 through 19 remain as office space. With both residential and commercial components in the building, Connect Tower will be active and vibrant – helping to reinvigorate our downtown.

With living walls and the popular Lui Chi's Coffee and Bianco, Connect Tower's main floor retail is positioned to be a gathering space for office tenants and downtown visitors alike.

Join Josan Properties as they relocate their head office to the Building and develop a bold vision for the future of Connect Tower.

A modern Connect Tower for today's tenants

The 3rd floor has been converted to provide some amazing amenities to all building tenants. Tenants and guests are able to book amenities - including private meeting rooms, boardroom and collaboration areas, a guest suite for out-of-town corporate guests, and lounges for hosting events.

The floor includes a golf simulator which will also be used for Oilers watch parties, contents, and corporate events. Also on the floor is a Fitness Studio which will be used for fitness classes, boot camps, Pilates, yoga, and personal training. There are also outdoor seating areas with views overlooking Rice Howard Way.

Commercial tenants are welcome to register to any of the social programming on the amenity floor, included but not limited to cooking classes hosted by local restaurants, paint nights, bingo, and meet your neighbour events.

The amenity floor is available 7am - 7pm Monday to Friday, and 7am - 1am Saturday and Sunday.
