LOCATION OVERVIEW

Nestled in the scenic Cowichan Valley on southern Vancouver Island, Duncan is a vibrant city celebrated for its rich cultural heritage and stunning natural surroundings. Home to approximately 5,000 residents, it combines small-town warmth with a deep sense of community and tradition.

The nearby Cowichan River Provincial Park, with its scenic trails, lush forests, and tranquil waters, is ideal for hiking, fishing, and nature exploration. Known as the "City of Totems," Duncan features an impressive collection of totem poles displayed throughout the city, attracting both locals and visitors who appreciate Indigenous art and history. The city also boasts a lively arts and crafts scene, with numerous galleries, studios, and community events celebrating local artisans.

Duncan is easily accessible by car and public transport, located just off the Trans-Canada Highway and within an hour's drive from both Victoria and Nanaimo. It is a convenient stop on the Island Rail Corridor and is just a 45-minute drive from the Nanaimo Ferry Terminals. As a gateway to the Cowichan Valley wine region, it offers a delightful array of local wineries and culinary experiences, making it a must-visit destination for food and wine enthusiasts.
