Location

Discover the strategic advantage of Atlantic Acres Industrial Park, featuring prime industrial space at 311 Blue Water Road in Bedford, Nova Scotia. This location offers a prominent and high-profile position within a well-established industrial hub.

Enjoy seamless access to major transportation arteries including Highway 102, Kearney Lake Road, Larry Uteck Boulevard, and Hammonds Plains Road, ensuring efficient logistics and distribution. A new extension of Highway 107 (Sackville-Bedford-Burnside Connector), enhances regional connectivity, reducing congestion and travel times. The Bedford Highway also serves as a vital north-south corridor connecting to the Regional Centre.

Bedford is a rapidly growing community within the Greater Halifax metropolitan area. Ongoing infrastructure projects, such as the new ferry terminal at Mill Cove connecting Bedford to downtown Halifax, underscore the region's commitment to enhancing connectivity and supporting future population and economic growth. Position your business for success in Atlantic Acres Industrial Park, where superior connectivity meets versatile industrial capabilities in a thriving Nova Scotian community.
