Property Details

Iconic Properties Group is pleased to present 26620 56 Avenue, Langley—a versatile industrial property offering stable income and long-term growth potential in one of North Langley's most accessible and strategically positioned industrial corridors.

Operational Efficiency & Utility

Located within a well-established industrial park, the facility supports essential functions including equipment storage, fleet maintenance, and operational staging. Its industrial zoning allows a broad range of uses, with flexibility for expansion or redevelopment based on tenant or owner-user needs.

Seamless Connectivity

Ideally situated just off Highway 1 via the 264 Street interchange and mere minutes from key arterials including 56 Avenue (Highway 10) and Fraser Highway, the site benefits from first-class regional and cross-metro transport connectivity—essential for warehousing, distribution, transportation, or construction operations.

Robust Industrial Ecosystem

Surrounded by a strong network of industrial peers and located within one of Langley Township's primary growth zones, the property enjoys operational synergy and enhanced tenant appeal due to proximity to complementary industrial businesses.

Future Transit-Driven Growth

The property is located near Carvolth Exchange, a major regional transit hub at Highway 1 and 202 Street, offering strong public transportation access. It also stands to benefit from the future Surrey–Langley SkyTrain extension, which will include a nearby Willowbrook station and is projected to be operational by late 2029. Additionally, the planned Langley–Haney Place Bus Rapid Transit (BRT) line will further enhance connectivity between Carvolth Exchange and Willowbrook, supporting long-term growth and accessibility.

Demographic

Strategically located in Langley Township's expanding Aldergrove industrial corridor, 26620 56 Avenue presents a rare opportunity to acquire a well-positioned warehouse facility with long-term upside. Aldergrove—part of the broader Township of Langley—is home to over 15,000 residents and surrounded by a regional population of 150,000+ across Langley, Abbotsford, and the Fraser Valley. The area's mix of industrial, agricultural, and commercial uses continues to attract businesses seeking affordability and proximity to the U.S. border. Ongoing infrastructure investments and regional planning support Metro Vancouver's eastward industrial shift.

The property offers immediate access to Highway 1 via the 264 Street interchange, enabling efficient travel times: 45 minutes to Vancouver, 15 minutes to Abbotsford International Airport, and under 10 minutes to the Aldergrove/Lynden U.S. border. Nearby rail lines and key trucking corridors further strengthen its appeal for logistics, distribution, and fleet operations. With stable tenancy in place, strong regional fundamentals, and flexible zoning, 26620 56 Avenue stands as a strategic foothold in one of the Fraser Valley's most accessible and future-ready industrial markets.
